Brunswick

Founded in 1771 upon the golden tidal marshlands of coastal Georgia, Brunswick stands as an historic port city and the gateway to The Golden Isles of Georgia.

You'll do well to choose Brunswick as the venue for your convention, event or seminar. From the Interstate to historic downtown, Brunswick is your gateway to successful meetings with more than 43,000 square feet of meeting and function space and 2800+ hotel rooms.

New hotels, newly renovated facilities and a new airport with a meeting space make the I-95 corridor a viable option for meetings, presentations and other group functions.

Old City Hall (1888), with its beautifully restored courtroom and chambers, is the ideal downtown location for meetings, seminars, receptions and other functions requiring spacious and elegant surroundings. There's even a converted multiplex theater now offering conference and meeting space, as well as a college campus conference center and a dedicated meeting center next to the Interstate.

For a truly unique experience, consider having a reception or after-meeting event aboard the Emerald Princess II casino cruise ship. With a capacity of 600, the Emerald Princess offers dinner and casino cruises with plenty of gaming, music, dancing ... even a brunch or moonlit buffet. A trip to one of the barrier islands, with their miles of sun-drenched beaches and endless recreational opportunities, will help you complete a winning agenda!

You'll enjoy Brunswick's mild year-round climate, friendly

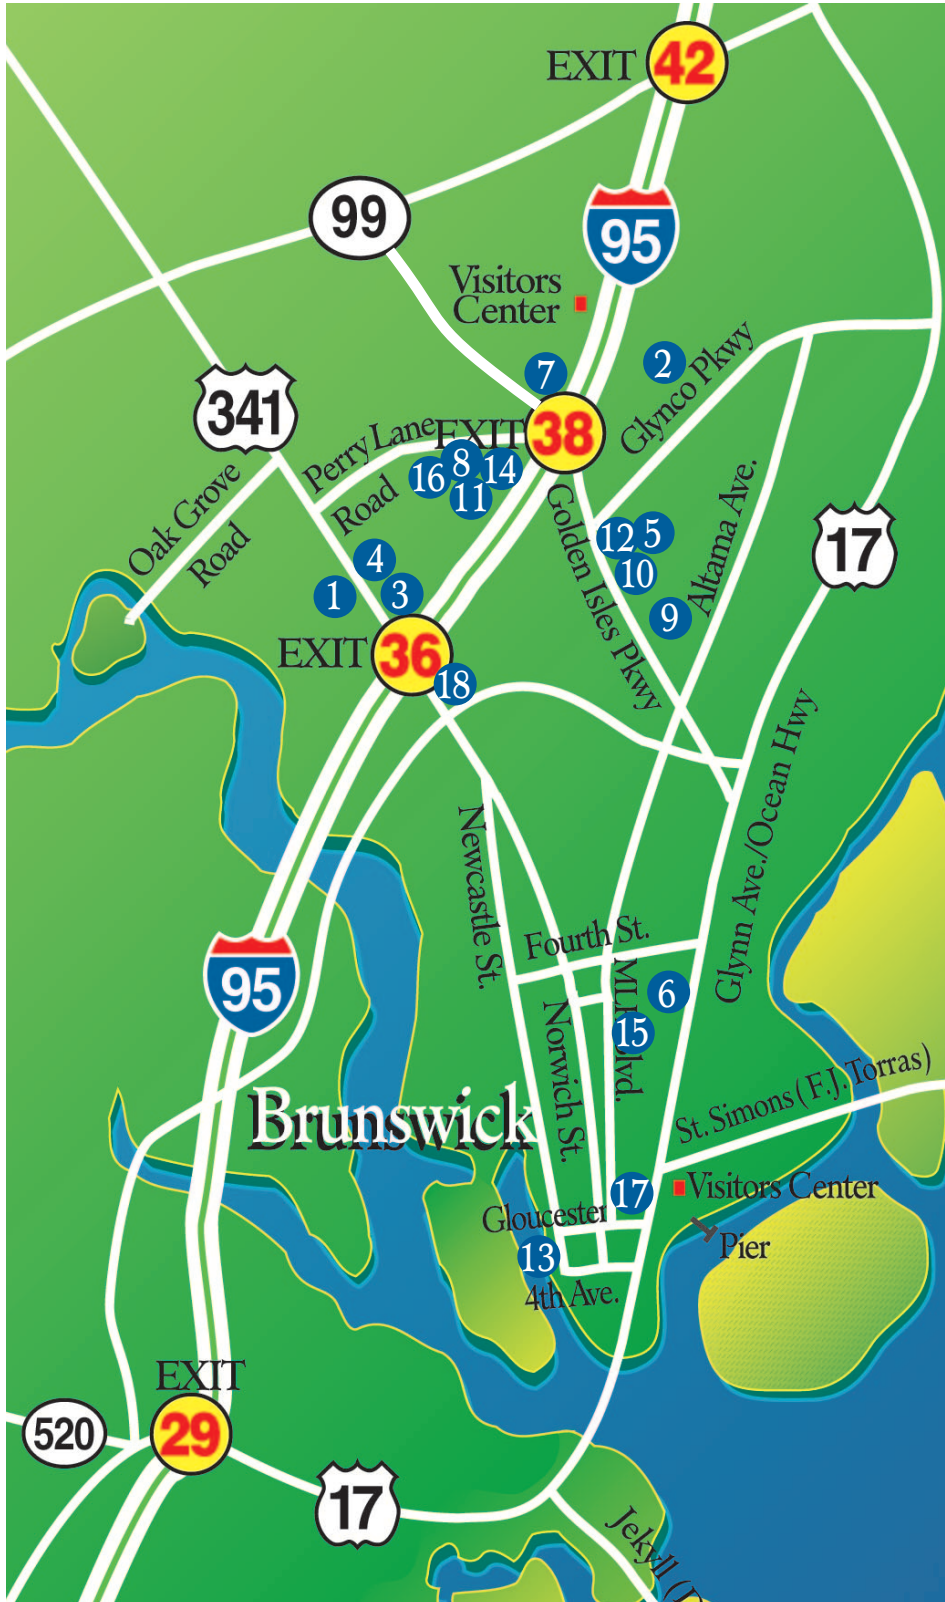

Southern hospitality, fine restaurants, shopping, antiquing and sightseeing.

Start an annual tradition. Have at least one meeting a year, any time of year, on our coast.

Whether you choose the mainland or the islands, you'll be glad you brought your group to Brunswick & The Golden Isles of Georgia.

The Convention & Visitors Bureau's friendly, professional sales staff is available to help you plan your next meeting, reunion, or group activity.
